Night, Night, Mal

---

*Dog whisperer, one of the best,
You taught so many too.
The four-legged hounds you loved,
They gave love back to you.*

*A genuine bloke didn't like crap,
Knew what he had to do.
Raised his family with his beautiful Dawn,
He travelled Australia too.*

*Mal and Dawn had a good life,
Laughter and love they shared.
Sometimes tears would flow,
More than most I know, this was so unfair.*

*Tough times came along
You both soldiered through,
Never gave up that's how it was
Together both of you.*

*These last few weeks you enjoyed
With coffee and cake and the like
BBQ with friends
Making special memories to treasure
Sharing a little delight.*

*Mal was getting weary, he put up a
Bloody good fight.
Didn't want to dwell on it,
He knew that wasn't right.*

*Dawn stayed by his side
Every step of the way,
Watching her man
Slowly slipping away.*

*'Twas tonight that the angels came,
Giving Mal his Angel Wings.
No more pain or suffering,
For Dawn her loss will begin.*

*Just think of Mal as the brightest star
That shines in the sky tonight.
He will be your Guardian Angel
Making sure you're alright.*

Sending love to Dawn and Family.
Love always, Lyn and Russ. Forever friends.
